Mrs. Bessie Pease is home from spending the summer at Farragut, Iowa.

Visit the Model and get prices before you buy your holiday goods.
It will save you money.

Six cars of corn were shipped out of Laclede on Friday of last week, W. S. Savage loading four and Felt & Lomax two.

The Model is making special prices until Jan. 1, 1908. Better see them before you buy your Christmas goods.

J. B. Patrick wants you to visit Model and see his mammoth stock of groceries, furniture and hardware. Special prices until Jan. 1.

Farmers say the roads have never been in better condition for hauling corn than they are this fall and the weather has been very favorable for getting out the crop.

The Modern Brotherhood lodge of Laclede is in the midst of a revival, over a dozen applications now being under investigation. A big class initiation will be held in the near future. Officers for the ensuing year are to be elected at the next meeting.
